The News.

The great rain storm of Sunday night did considerable damage in this vicinity, and also upon the rail roads, carrying away bridges, sweeping away the track, &c. Full particulars will be found in to-day's paper. In Chicago and elsewhere, the effects of the storm were felt. As yet we have heard of no marine disasters.

The reports of the recent wholesale murder of Free State men in Kansas, are fully confirmed.

From Washington we are advised that Lord Napier has despatched a messenger in search of the Commander-in-Chief of the North American British naval forces, the tenor of whose instructions are not, however, publicly known. Congressional proceedings are not especially important.

The people of Norfolk have become considerably riled at the doings of some impudent blacks, who preferred freedom to bondage, and as a means of procuring the former, have very unceremoniously "cleared out." They have held indignation meetings there, and have threatened an application of tar and feathers to some suspected abettors of the runaways, unless they make immediate tracks for other parts.

Our market yesterday was firm, with a good demand for wheat at our last quotations, with rather an upward tendency in prices. The weather, after the storm, was calm, and much warmer and pleasanter than any other day during the past week. About 26 days of the present month have been rainy. Summer ushers itself upon us to-day, and we trust that it may bring with it an improvement in the weather.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

More Pro-Slavery Murders—Five Free State Men Killed in Cold Blood, and Five Others Wounded.

We hasten to lay before our readers the following, communication just received from a gentleman whose character for veracity is unimpeachable:

MONEKA, Linn Co., K. T., May 20, 1858.

Yesterday a party of Pro Slavery men from Missouri came into the "Trading Post," situated on the Military road leading from Fort Scott to Fort Leavenworth, where it crosses the Osage river, about three miles from the State line.—They were not seen till they emerged from the timber and rode up to the store. Here they took Mr. G. W. Andrew and John F. Campbell prisoners. They then started on the road towards Kansas City. They overtook here a Mr. Stilwell, from Sugar Mound, who was going up the river for a load of provisions. They took him prisoner, and ordered the others to get into his wagon and ride. In a half mile further, they came to a missionary, by the name of Rev. Charles Reed. They continued on for two miles and a half, when they had taken twelve men.—Those men had been taken when at their work, without resistance, and unarmed, and had been implicated in the troubles in Kansas. They were conservative men.

On arriving at a deep ravine, in a skirt of timber, the commander called a halt. The prisoners were formed into a line, about five yards in advance of the horsemen. The command was given to "present arms! fire!" Every man dropped. Four were killed dead! all but one of the others were badly wounded. The ruffians then wheeled their horses and galloped off.—In a few minutes three of them returned, and searched their victims for money. They kicked the men, and rolled them over roughly so to see if they were dead. Finding one only slightly wounded, a ruffian put a revolver to his ear, and fired; remarking that he had always found that the most certain shot he could make. He took the key of the safe out of Campbell's pocket, saying "there was money in that safe, and he would come back some night to get it."

The names of the killed are: William Stillwell, of Sugar Mound, recently from Iowa. He is a young man, with a young and beautiful wife, and two young children. He felt perfectly safe, remarking to a companion that "he was a Free Mason;" and it is said that a Free Mason, Dr. Hamilton, of Fort Scott, shot him. He was killed with a double barreled shot gun loaded with pistol balls, the charge entering his left breast. He was highly esteemed in this neighborhood, and his death will be avenged. Patrick Ross was an Irishman, and had been driven from his claim on the Little Osage, by the same gang. Mr. Colpetzer was a farmer from Pennsylvania. Michael Robinson the same from Iowa. John F. Campbell, a storekeeper from Pennsylvania. He was a young man, highly esteemed, and had no family.

The wounded are: William Hairgrove and his brother Asa Hairgrove, formerly of Georgia, who came here to live in a free State. This is the head and front of their offending. Also, Rev. Charles Road, a Baptist preacher from Wisconsin, who moved into that place a week ago. He was badly wounded and crept into the woods and was not found till morning. Amos Hall and his brother, Austin Hall, who was not hurt, but fell from prudential reasons. Charles Snyder was slightly hurt in the leg and back.

The ruffian band was led by Brockett, of Fort Scott, and accompanied by Dr. Hamilton and others of that place, who have made themselves notorious for two years past. There were twenty-five in all, and they were well acquainted with the men whom they killed, excepting Stillwell. Eight of them lived in Kansas, and seventeen in Missouri. Most of these seventeen lived in and around West Point. This place was the Border Ruffian headquarters in 1856, having a Blue Lodge, and being the rendezvous of the Southern army of invasion under Gen. Clarke, and the secret chamber of the "Council of Ten," who decided the fate of prisoners and of settlers during that gloomy year.]

The murders were committed yesterday at one o'clock. The news spread like wildfire over the country, and before midnight three hundred men had assembled at the trading post. Scouts were sent into Missouri, but no clue could be found to their retreat. Most of the people in the State condemned the act, and were willing we should take them if we could. It is supposed the ruffians are at West Point, and our men are now marching on that place, with the intention if taking them—peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must. Capt. Montgomery and his men are here. The other citizens generally are not organized. There are no arms in the country except sporting guns, and not half of the men have those. Brig. Gen. McDaniel is with the company, but having no military knowledge, he does not attempt any organization of discipline.

The men, however, being determined to fight, will go on, whether they have officers or not.—R. B. Mitchell is taking an honorable part, and is aiding Gen. McDaniel.

Drs. Danford and Weaver attended the wounded men.

The ruffians swear there shall be no crops raised in Linn County, this year, so you will see the necessity of sending us some arms. Crowds of men assembled, who could not go for want of them. The old men were on hand to steady the boys, for it has come to this, that every man must fight or run. I noticed Mr. Wattles, Rev. Mr. Addis, Mr. Arthur, and several others of the old citizens and old men. A few of the timid may leave, but the general feeling is life or death in Kansas.

LATER.—The Chicago Tribune has one day's later news from a correspondent, to the effect that this tale of blood is fully confirmed by the messengers from Linn County; and that Captain Montgomery, with a force of 160 men had occupied West Point, Missouri.

The Great Rain Storm—High Waters in the Mire—Dams Swept by the Floods—Railroad Bridges carried away—Other damages.

On Sunday it rained lightly in the forenoon, and showed some symptoms of clearing off in the afternoon, which, however, like most of the weather symptoms of late, proved deceptive.—On Sunday evening and all Sunday night, such a torrent of rain poured down, accompanied by thunder and lightning without stint, as the oldest inhabitant declares never having seen equalled. It came down in perfect torrents, converting the highways into rivers, and filling every low place to the brim. Most of the cellars in low localities have been flooded, and considerable damage done in that way.

Towards yesterday morning the water in the Milwaukee and Menomonee rivers commenced rising, until it reached an almost unprecedented heighth. A gentleman, who has resided here some twenty years, and carefully observed the risings in the former stream, informs us that it has not been so high by a foot, during his residence in the place, as it was yesterday morning. Every inch of ground along each side the river, for some distance, from the Dam down to the Mills, was completely submerged, and everything floatable carried away. Most of the lumber yards on the river were flooded, and an immense quantity of loose boards and timber floated away.

About $500 worth of staves were floated off from the cooper shop of Mr. THOMPSON, in the Second Ward, near the Phoenix Mills, and most of the manufacturers on the water power suffered more or less. The warehouse of Messrs. SANDERSON & Co., adjoining their Mill, was filled with water for the depth of several feet, and about 500 barrels of flour seriously damaged.—Coming down further, the damage still increases. Nearly all the cellers of the East Water street stores were terribly flooded, and everything but was lying loose about the docks was swept away. Under one office, in the Grocery Store of Messrs. GAISLEY & Co., considerable damage was done, and WELDON'S Saloon opposite, also suffered. JOHN FURLONG, below Huron street bridge, loses about $1,000 by damage to salt in his cellar, and Messrs. NAZRO & Co., next door, also lose about $500. Still further down, the Grocery House of WISE & Co., sustained considerable loss by damage to sugar in their cellar, estimated at $1,000.

At most places along the river some trifling damage was done, those we have mentioned having sustained the most severe losses. Our neighbor of the Free Democrat was put to some inconvenience, the water flooding the engine room to such an extent that it was impossible to use the engine. The lumber yards on the Menomonee were all under water, but we believe very little damage was sustained over that way, except by the new warehouse of Mr. SMITH, a large portion of the timber for which was carried off. The floats and draw of the old Chestnut street bridge got loose in the morning and came down the river at a desperate speed. The Oneida street bridge was opened for it, and it passed safely through, but "got stuck" in the Spring street bridge, although the latter was opened before the floating mass reached it. No particular damage was done to the bridge, and the old float was hauled up a few yards and made fast to the dock. A large scow got loose and came through Oneida and Spring street bridges safely, but got caught under the Walker's Point bridge for a time, but finally got unhitched, and made its way in the direction of Lake Michigan, where it arrived safely, if something did not stop it on the way. A large pile driver also came down with the current, and passing through two of the bridges, came in contact with one of Syz's dredges, which was anchored in the river just above Huron street bridge, and remained there.

We learned in the afternoon that a portion of the east side of the dam at Humboldt had been carried away, and that every exertion was being made by the people of that place, to stop up the breach, and it was thought they would be able to repair the damage without losing the dam. We have heard of no loss of life by the flood, although there was one narrow escape. A boy, who was engaged in making a raft on the Menomonee, was thrown into the river by the rafts coming loose, and was carried down to the Walker's Point bridge, where he saved himself by catching upon a scow which was fastened under the bridge. There was a tremendous excitement on the bridge and the vicinity as the boy was seen coming down the stream. Last night the water had fallen nearly a foot and was going down fast.

THE RAILROADS.

The flood has occasioned some derangement to the railroad trains and considerable damage to their tracks. The Lake Shore road escapes uninjured, and its trains all arrived and departed, yesterday, on time. The La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. got off quite cheaply. There were two or three small breaks, within a few miles of the city, which detained the morning train, due 11.35 A. M., till 1.15 P. M. The afternoon train, however, went out on time, and doubtless the road is all right to-day.

The Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. is the most serious sufferer. Between this city and Elm Grove, 10 miles out, no less than four bridges are rendered impassable, and some sixty feet of the track, beyond Wauwatosa, is carried away. No trains arrived, or departed by this road, yesterday. Passengers came in from Elm grove by divers conveyances, and several omnibus and carriage loads went out, yesterday afternoon, to take the cars there for the West,

We happened to be on the morning run in, yesterday, and had an inkling of what was in store for us, between Whitewater and Palmyra, where the surface water had flooded the track and damaged a culvert. Conductor Rock, however, who has a constitutional objection to being behind time, managed to bring us along, in good season, as far as the Junction; though the water was over the track in many places, and not a few culverts were suspiciously shaky. At the Junction we were delayed an hour, or more while a damaged culvert was so far repaired as to enable us to cross. We then pushed on to Elm Grove, 10 miles from Milwaukee, where we were brought to a final halt by the information that four bridges were gone, and that we could get no further. Thereupon a number of us footed it to Wauwatosa, where the Menomonee had swept off two of the plank road bridges, and was giving the Railroad bridge a severe test. As the water was falling, however, there is no doubt that this bridge is safe. At Wauwatosa, we had the good fortune to meet with Mr. LEWIS HELLBERG, of the Lisbon Plank Road House, who kindly brought us into town in his waggon. Most of the passengers remained at Elm Grove, and were thence conveyed to the city, as soon as teams could be provided by the Railroad Company. The country, in all directions, is flooded and rail, plank and common roads, have suffered alike. As the weather cleared up, yesterday, with a fresh breeze from the West, we may hope to see the waters speedily subside.

Common Council Proceedings.

MAYOR PARSONS PRESIDING.

A meeting of the Board of Councillors was held on Saturday evening.

Accounts and petitions were presented and appropriately referred, for investigation of their merits.

A report was received from F. S. Blodgett, Deputy Engineer, showing the amount of timber used in docking three sections of the Straight Cut.

An ordinance was read, permanently establishing the dock line on Milwaukee river. Referred to Harbor Committee.

An account was presented from Noyes & Hertzhaim, for book cases furnished to school houses, at $25 each. Laid on the table.

A report from Select Committee was read, reporting adverse to the petition of H. A. Bisfield.

Select Committee reported adverse to petition of P. Endres, to remit certain taxes. Concurred in.

Local Committee of the Fourth Ward reported in favor of allowing accounts of various persons, for grading done, lumber furnished, &c.; allowed.

Councillor Hadley, from the Select Committee, reported back a resolution—no action having been taken thereon by said Committee.—Said resolution provides that the City Clerk be furnished a book of printed warrants, to be issued in payment of work done by individuals for the city; all orders issued after the 6th of April last to become due on the first of February next, with interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum. The Councillor said he was exceedingly sorry to see the city unable to pay its debts, but thought the laboring men would derive but little benefit from the addition of interest, as they cannot hold them until they are due, but are obliged to sell them, and only the brokers would reap benefit. He thought that the city should only let contracts for such work, which, though it was to be paid for in City Orders, would be done at cash prices. Money should be borrowed from the Banks, to enable the city to pay its debts to contractors, and the Bank debts to be paid from the taxes.

Councillor Waldo thought the city should not borrow any more money. We were so near bankrupt that it is almost impossible to borrow money. No more improvements should be contracted for until we have the money to pay for them—excepting the most necessary ones, to prevent improvements already made from being destroyed.

After considerable debate, the resolution passed.

A petition from a number of citizens of the Ninth Ward Ward was read, stating that a certain portion of land, belonging to Garret Vliet, was a public nuisance, which should be abated by opening the old gully. Laid on the table.

Local Committee of Fourth Ward reported in favor of allowing $50 to JOHN A. SIEBE ($100 were claimed by him) as payment in full for keeping certain books. Concurred in.

The Committee on Fire Department reported in favor of allowing accounts of various individuals for repairing engines, putting up of hills, &c., amounting to several hundred dollars. Allowed.

A report from the Fifth Ward School Committee was read, stating that it is necessary to purchase a new lot and build a school house, the one now in use not being fit to be used another year, and requesting the Council to take some action in the matter. Referred to Committee on Schools.

Resolutions were introduced, declaring certain lots in the Eighth Ward public nuisances.—Adopted.

At 11 o'clock the Council adjourned.

NEW FIRM IN THE LUMBER BUSINESS.—Messrs. MENZIES, LADUE & Co., is the name of a firm just established in this city, in the lumber, manufacturing, and trading business. The parties are R. MENZIES, EDWARD A. LADUE, and ROBERT W. MCCLELLAN. They have purchased a mill on the Oconto River, known as the Hubbell Mill, where Mr. MCCLELLAN resides, and will attend to the getting out of lumber, &c.—Messrs. MENZIES, LADUE & Co. have taken the yard of Messrs. ELDRIDGE and BALCOM, who have been engaged in the business in this city for so many years, and who continue to carry on one of the most extensive lumber establishments in Chicago. The gentlemen composing this firm are all well known and of high standing in our community. Mr. MENZIES, as many of our readers are aware, has been connected with the News, as local editor, and, while acting in that capacity, he gained the good will of the many with whom his business brought him in contact. He has our most sincere wishes for his success in his new avocation. The friends and and customers of Messrs. ELDRIDGE & BALCOM, will find the new firm ready to supply them with anything in their line of business, at the lowest figures.

THE MANIAC.—The name of the unfortunate man, of whose crazy doings we gave an account yesterday, was JOHN HART. A brother of his named PATRICK HART, lives in the 3d Ward, from whom we learn that his brother's insanity was caused by some trouble about land which has been taken from him. He has never been known to act with impropriety before, though he has been greatly troubled in mind of late on account of the loss of his property, which, in his wild ravings, he constantly declared he had "earned by the sweat of his brow." Mr. PATRICK HART has made good to Mr. ALLEN, as far as he could afford, the damage done by his brother to this gentleman's office. He has also very honorably paid policeman CAFFRON for the swallowed watch chain.

NEW BEER HALL.—Mr. JOHN SCHAUBS has recently opened a Lager Beer Hall and Saloon under Youngs' new building, on the corner of Wisconsin and Main Streets. The new hall is elegantly fitted up, and is by allmeans the largest of the kind in the city. It is provided with two bars, one exclusively for lager beer, and the other for wines, liquors and refreshments.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—William Parks and Martin Riley were fined $5 each, and costs, for disorderly conduct. Thomas Flanery, drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 and costs. John Walsh, also drunk and noisy, was fined $2, and Michael Gorvin, found guilty of disorderly conduct was fined the same amount with costs.

FOR BUFFALO.—The fine propeller Galena leaves this forenoon for Buffalo. GRIFFIN & BURNS, ticket agents, at the foot of East Water street.

TO LEASE.—J. S. FILLMORE has a good lot in 8th Ward, near ELMORE'S warehouse, known as Yates, dock, to lease cheap.

MISS ESMONDE'S READINGS.—Miss ESMONDE was welcomed, last evening, by a very large and appreciative audience; and her readings fulfilled the high expectations raised by the notices of the Eastern press. She has a well modulated voice and graceful manner, and has evidently studied elocution to good purpose. The audience applauded heartily and yet with discrimination.—We hope to hear this accomplished lady again.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELLERS.—It will be seen by a notice elsewhere, that the Superintendent of the M. & M. R. R. Mr. JERVIS has made arrangements for the conveyance of passengers to connect with the trains at Elm Grove. Omnibuses will leave the hotels at 9 o'clock A. M., daily, taking passengers, until the road is repaired.

OPERA TO-MORROW.—The favorite opera of Alessandro Stradella, will be performed by our Musical Society, at Young's Hall, to-morrow evening. Our music loving readers may assure themselves of a rich treat on this occasion, and we hope to see the Society greeted by a full house.

CONVICTED.—The trial of Richard Pierce, charged with the murder of Wm. H. Hamilton, in the town of Whitewater, in this State, on the 18th of January, was brought to a close on Thursday last, by the jury's rendering a verdict of "guilty of murder in the second degree." The punishment for this crime is imprisonment for life. The verdict was received with the utmost composure by the prisoner. This is the first murder trial that ever occurred in Walworth county.

☞ A correspondent of the Sentinel, in describing the advantages of Milwaukee, speaks of "the numerous and elegant tombstones" in its cemetery.—Free Democrat.

Put on your specs and look again, neighbor, and you will see you have made a blunder.

MILITARY.—Company "B," Milwaukee Light Guard, have a parade to-morrow afternoon.—The Light Guard Cadets also turn out, in full uniform, in a few days.

NAVAL.—The Milwaukee Boat Club will launch their new boat, the Menomonee, at one o'clock to-day. She is a beautiful craft, built by BROOKS, and painted in capital style, by HARPER, on Oneida Street.

ST. PAUL'S.—Confirmation services will be held by Bishop KEMPER, at St. Paul's church, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock.

VALUABLE GIFT.—A lady bought a book at J. H. Colby & Co's Gift Book Store, 198 East Water St., on Saturday last, for which she paid $1.25, and received a gift of a gold watch valued at fifty dollars. We think she surely should be satisfied with her bargain, inasmuch as the book was well worth the money invested.

☞ We would remind our friends, and the public in general, that C. SOLOMON & Co., opticians, at Juneau Block, East Water street, up stairs, are going to remain in this city a short time longer only, and we would advise them to make use of the chance offered by the opticians, to improve and perfect their vision by their unsurpassed spectacles.

THE STORM AT CHICAGO.—A heavy thunder storm, or rather a series of storms, visited our city last night. The wind blew in horrible sheets, and the rain poured down in torrents. Trees were blown down, and some damage done to buildings about the city. But it is only surprising that the damage is not greater, when we consider the severity of the storm.

The first gust of wind, which was the most furious, occured about 9 o'clock in the evening, when the services in the churches were in progress. Some of the church buildings were severely shaken, and in some the congregations were greatly alarmed. In the Edina Place Baptist Church the people sprang to their feet, and some rushed for the doors, expecting to see the building fall over their heads. No injury was done, however.

A chimney was blown over on the house of S. B. Pomeroy, on Prairie Avenue, south of Old street, and the brick broke through the roof of the back part of the house, passing down on to a bed occupied by Jerome Collins, a boy about 7 years old. The boy was not injured, but his escape was wonderful.

The roof of a barn, nearly completed, for Mr. Selmes, corner of Old street and Michigan Avenue, was blown off and carried some 60 feet.

The two stories of a brick building in process of erection, at the corner of West Lake and Canal streets, fell with a crash, about half past nine o'clock, part of the bricks and beams falling upon a bakery adjoining, but fortunately doing no damage.

The heavy cornice of the building on the corner of Canal and Randolph streets was torn off like paper.

We understand that a small frame house in the extreme southern part of the city was turned upside down. No one was injured.

Signs, awnings, gas-lamps, trees, lumber piles and chimneys were blown down in various parts of the city. This is the extent of the damage as far as we can learn at present.—Journal of last evening.

FOR LONDON.—The lumber business from this vicinity to Europe pays so well that English merchants are disposed to enter it, as well as our own men. A letter was received by one of our business firms yesterday from a firm in London, ordering them to charter a vessel for a load of pine staves to be taken to that port.—Here is a good chance for a good vessel and a load for a sea voyage. This will be the first load taken to London—all the others having gone to Liverpool.—Detroit Free Press, May 28.

A RASCAL CAUGHT.—A few days since, a man residing at Hudson, Wis., named Taylor, married a very respectable lady, who was a school mistress, and possessed of some money, which he succeeded in getting into his clutches after the ceremony. He succeeded at the same time in obtaining a gold watch and chain, on the pretended security of some land, of which he did not own a single foot. To cap the climax of his villainy, he hired a span of horses at a Livery stable and came over to St. Paul. He was pursued by a person who knew him, and yesterday morning pointed out officer Morton on 4th street, who at once arrested him, and lodged him in jail.—Minnesotian, 28th ult.

SUICIDE.—While at East Troy, on Saturday last, we learned the particulars of a sad case of suicide, which occurred there on that morning. The wife of Mr. Samuel Starret, a farmer living about two miles north of the village, near Troy Lake, left her house at about five o'clock in the morning, and after a search, was found in the lake, drowned. When found she had been in the water some two hours. The deceased was about 30 years of age. She leaves three small children, one and infant three months old. The only cause which we could learn for the fatal act was that the woman was laboring under a depression of mind in view, of removing to Iowa, and leaving her old home and parents, which they had intended to do in a few days.—Elkhorn Independent.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 31.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Marshall, of Ky., the memorial of the artists of the U. S., praying for the establishment of an art commissioner, was referred to a select commissioner.

On motion of Mr. Ritchie, of Pa., the House took up the Senate joint resolution for the adjustment of the difficulties of Paraguay; he said the importance of the subject required that it should be disposed of one way or the other. The proposition has the unanimous recommendation of the committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Letcher moved to strike out so much of the resolution as authorizes the President to use such moral force as in his judgement seemed necessary.

Mr. Richie replied, that the resolution would be worthless with such an amendment, and they had better give up the whole subject altogether.

Mr. Crawford wished for an amendment authorizing the President to use such force as in his judgement he deemed necessary to protect American Commerce from British Cruisers.

Mr. Ritchie objected that it was germain to the pending question, as the attack on the Water Witch occurred in 1855.

Mr. Fletcher objected that the Constitution gave the power to Congress to declare war, and it could not be transferred to the President; if there was necessity for war, it was for Congress to take the responsibility, and to furnish means for its successful prosecution; he acknowledged that wrong had been done by Paraguay, but was for proceeding in a constitutional manner for the adjustment of the difficulties.

Mr. Ritchie replied that what the Pres't would do, would be by the authority of Congress. It was thought that the exhibition of a small vessel would have the effect to cause the settlement of the difficulties, and that there would be no occasion to use force, which would not be done except in case of necessity.

Mr. Crawford wished to know, why should we only seek redress from Paraguay, for firing on the Water Witch, while there was twenty-seven cases of American vessels being overhauled by British cruisers.

Mr. Davis, of Mass., said they were declaring war against Paraguay, but making no provision for men or money.

A voice—We'll do that hereafter.

The resolution was then passed by 119 against 79.

SENATE.—A resolution providing for evening sessions, was adopted.

Mr. Houston, of Texas, made an ineffectual attempt to have the American protectorate resolution taken up. The resolution on the subject of British aggressions were considered.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 31.

It is understood that a special messenger has been despatched by Lord Napier, with instructions for the British Admiral of the North American fleet, wherever he can be found. He will proceed first to Halifax. The tenor of the instructions is not known.

Commodore Thomas A. P. Catherby Jones, died last night at his residence near Georgetown, aged 64 years.

The war fever here is greatly on the increase and has been very much accelerated by Senator Wilson's resolution, and the debate in the Senate on Saturday.

Efforts are being made by leading politicians and others in the Catholic interest, for the appointment of James S. Chandler, of Philadelphia, as minister to Rome, but powerful representations against it are being urged by the President's friends.

Senator Henderson, of Texas is quite sick, and his recovery doubtful.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

In addition to the changes recently noted in the transportation of the great Southern mails, an alteration is expected to take effect on the 1st of July, by which all the mails from New York and Washington, to all points below Washington will be greatly expedited.

It is now anticipated that both through and way mails

Opinions of Col. Benton.

Since the death of Col. BENTON, quite a controversy has arisen as to his opinions of the compromise of 1850, and the slavery policy of Mr. BUCHANAN. The telegraph has already alluded to the letter of Hon. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, in reply to a card of WILLIAM CARY JONES, which appeared in the Washington Union, contradicting a report in the New York Tribune, of Col. BENTON'S conversation with Mr. BLAIR, upon his death-bed, relative to these questions. From Mr. BLAIR'S letter we condense the main points.

In opening, Mr. BLAIR refers to the contents of the card of Mr. JONES, avows himself as the "intimate friend of Col. BENTON," who held conversation with him on his death bed on the subjects above referred to, and who reported the conversation to the reporter of the Tribune, whose published statement he attests as accurate, only in the fact that it might have been stronger. He further states that Col. BENTON was only constrained by motives of delicacy from denouncing the BUCHANAN Administration to Mr. JONES, who had held the office under it and was personally indebted to it. Mr BLAIR continues:

But to me and to many of his friends in Congress he was under no restraint, and to them and the public generally he gave vent to the strongest emotions of his patriotic heart and powerful intellect. His mastery philippic against the whole policy of the Administration, built on the Dred Scott decision—his exposure of the whole band of conspirators against the Union, designated under the name of Nullifiers, to whom he ascribes all the troubles of the country for years, and on whom he charges, in his examination of that decision, that the packing of the Supreme Court to assist them in the destruction of the principles of the Constitution and overthrow the Government, proves that even after he was struck down with disease, he was not so tamed as to be incapable of making what Mr. Jones calls "the invidious sectional distinction" of declaring his respect for "the great service Mr. Clay had rendered to the Republic at that time (1850) by baffling and putting down the traitorous Secessionists of the South.

At this interview, I beat over him and told him of the good effect Mr. Crittenden's measure would have; that coming from him, and being perfectly fair, it made it impossible that the agitators of the South could excite a feeling there to promote their designs. This animated him, and his mind recurred with fervor to the contest Mr. Clay had with the nullifiers in 1860, which he had then under review in closing his work and his life; and although he could not speak above his breath, he gave to his utterance the emphasis which distinguished his impassioned conversation He extolled Mr. Clay and denounced his adversaries, as the Tribune's article states. His bosom and eyes seemed to dilate with the expression he labored to give to his sense of what he called the noble patriotism and glorious eloquence of Mr. Clay in his struggle against the enemies of the Union. The spot upon his face, produced by the burning cancer within, glowed as his excitement increased. His burst of rapture over—which carried him back to the scenes of the Senate—he fell into his familiar tone with me, and added, "Sir, he throttled the rascals! he throttled them!" and, as if to call my attention to it, he said, "Rhett particularly." I have recurred to the debate since, and find the following in reference to Mr. Rhett, which was extorted from Mr. Clay by Mr. Benton. Mr. Clay, after he had named Rhett, added—"If he pronounced the sentiment attributed to him, of raising the standard of disunion and resistance to the common Government, whatever he has been, if he follows up that declaration by overt acts, he will be a traitor, and I hope will meet the fate of a traitor." (Great applause in the gallery, with difficulty suppressed by the Chair.)

I never thought of giving an account of this interview to the Press. Others thought that such an instance of the utter forgetfulness of himself on the part of Col. Benton in his dying condition, of the total surrender of his thoughts to a work which he wished to make useful to his country, of the ardor with which he entered (while the hand of death was on him) into conflicts for the public welfare, requiring all the vigor of his life, deserved commemoration.—Nelson, who was cheered as his life ebbed away, at every successive announcement of a flag being struck to him by the enemy at Trafalgar; Wolfe, who died happy in the arms of victory on the Heights of Abraham, did not die more exultingly than Benton, when convinced that the plots and hopes of the nullifiers were confounded.

* * * * *

Mr. Blair proceeds thus:

I will now proceed to show, from recorded evidence in Col. Benton's own handwriting, that he was opposed to Mr. Buchanan and his administration, that he was opposed to the speedy settlement of the Territorial question in relation to Slavery in the mode proposed by Mr. Buchanan, but, on the contrary, he was resolved on the agitation of the subject, until the opinion of the Supreme Court, opening all the Territories to the introduction of slaves, was rendered abortive by the action of Congress in the maintainance of the political rights of the people. That he was opposed to Mr. Buchanan, not merely on the score of his pending measures, but because he has recently given his adhesion to principles adverse to Gen. Jackson's cardinal doctrine in reference to the independence of the legislative and executive departments of political decisions of the Supreme Court, and because he believed him anti Democratic at heart.

In proof of the first position, I give the following extract of a biographical notice of him prepared by an intimate personal friend, which, subjected to Col. Benton's revision, bears the mark of it from his own pen, and which, in giving the private motives and reasons of his conduct (which could only be derived from himself,) may be considered an autobiography. Now he declares:

"In the Presidential election of November, 1856, Col. Benton supported Mr. Buchanan, in opposition to his son-in-law, Col. Fremont. The reason assigned by him was a confidence that Mr. Buchanan, if elected, would restore the principles of the Jackson Administration, and the apprehension that the success of Col. Fremont would engender sectional parties fatal to the permanence of the Union. He soon after saw occasion to change both opinions, and, although in retirement, he zealously opposed the Administration of Buchanan and inclined to unite with the opposition that presented itself in the Republican party."

Mr. Blair proceeds to state further that Col. Fremont has in his possession written evidence from Col. Benton of the latter's more recent favorable opinion of the political principles and attitude of him (Col. Fremont,) "which will do him honor, should he ever think fit to make it public." He further cites a preamble and resolutions drawn by Col. Benton, on his sick bed, and transmitted to F. P. Blair, Jr., in the House of Representatives, in which he denounced the Dred Scott decision as political, and therefore illegal and void, and "in derogation of the powers of Congress and restrictive of its time honored rights and practice to legislate for Territories, and that, being so derogatory and restrictive, it became the duty of Congress to vindicate its rights by asserting its full authority to legislate upon slavery in Territories, and declaring its total disregard of the said illegal extra-judicial and void decisions of the Supreme Court."

In the preamble accompanying this, and which was intended by Col. Benton to be connected with the act for the organization of Arizona, it was declared that, as that Territory was free from slavery by the laws of Mexico when we acquired it, it should forever remain free, and that Congress should declare that "nothing contained in this act, or in the late decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, shall be held or taken to authorize African slavery to the said Territory, but that slavery remains abolished and prohibited therein, as at the time of its acquisition from the Republic of Mexico."

In conclusion, Mr. Blair writes as follows:

With regard to the report made in the Tribune, on the authority of my statement of what passed between Col. Benton and myself respecting Mr. Clay and the Nullifiers, I am perfectly willing to leave it to be judged by the public, with the added circumstances now given in this paper. There are many members of Congress whom I could bring to vouch that Col. Benton expressed to them sentiments similar to those given as expressed to me, which Mr. Jones represents as implying an "invidious sectional distinction," and contradicts. I believe that Col. Benton has not an intimate acquaintance left in the world who does not know that he denounced constantly, for the last quarter of a century, the Nullifying party in the South, so long marked by an "invidious sectional distinction."

But I will call nobody to vouch my statement, because I think my word sufficient to stand against Mr. Jones' defiant contradiction. It would not have required notice at all but for the comment of the Government press, which in effect made it a card played by the Administration. This must be my apology for the minute review given of the final attitude taken by Col. Benton toward the Executive, whom he contributed to elevate to power, and who now seeks to make the political influence of the deceased statesman an inheritance. F. P. BLAIR.

SILVER SPRING, May 20, 1858.

A Repudiation of the "English Bribe" from Georgia.

The late measure of the administration, offering a bribe to the people of Kansas to accept a slave constitution, does not meet with the most unanimous approval at the South.

The Savannah Georgian, a leading Democratic organ, denounces the English device in strong terms, an adds: "We would have preferred to see the South submit quietly to the rejection of Kansas, after fighting faithfully for its admission under the Kansas bill, objectionable as that was in some features, than to see a temporary peace bought at the cost of a sacrifice of principle, upon the maintenance of which depends the stability of our Government."—Should the people of Kansas vote—"Proposition rejection"—thus, according to Mr. Howard's illustration, knocking off the hat of Lecompton, with the head in it, the South will generally repudiate the trick with great indignation. They will have sacrificed their honor, and gained nothing but a gratuitous insult to the North.

Bribery Denied.

W. D. CHAPIN, Esq., a member of our State Legislature in 1856, in a letter to the Elkhorn Independent, thus emphatically and unequivocally denies that portion of the Report of the Investigating Committee, which charges him with having been bribed by the La Crosse Company, or having received any pecuniary compensation from said company whatever:

MESSRS EDITORS.—I see by the Report of the Land Grant Investigating Committee, as published in your last issue, that I am charged with having received the bonds of the La Crosse Railroad Company; and the only inference that can be drawn from it is, that I have received them in consideration of a vote I gave for the Land Grant Bill.

Now I deny the charge, and pronounce the Report, so far as I am concerned, wholly and unequivocally false. I never received from the La Crosse Company, nor any other Company, nor from any person or persons whatever, one farthing in bonds, stock, or money, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to vote in favor of the La Crosse Bill, or as a compliment for having so voted, nor any other purpose whatever. I never received any at all.

Here let me say that I did not vote for the first Bill; but was the only member of the Assembly from this County who voted against it, Judge Potter being at home, sick. And it was this very Bill that the Company was so anxious should become a law, and made; as I at that time understood, larger pecuniary offers for votes. While it was pending, and its fate uncertain, I was approached in words to this effect. "The Company do not wish to influence any Member's vote, but if you feel disposed to give this Bill your support, they will reciprocate the favor by awarding you five thousand dollars."

I did not comply with the terms, and heard no more of the five thousand dollars until I saw your published Report of the Committee.

It is true I voted for the second bill, believing that, as I do now, it was the best that could pass that Legislature. The reward for this vote was the consciousness of doing what I regarded as my duty. I received nothing pecuniary from any source whatever. W. D. CHAPIN.

Bloomfield, Wis., May 24th, 1858.

The Mormons.

A writer in the St. Louis Republican, who resided among the Mormons in Utah, estimates their number at 75,000 or 80,000. Salt Lake city contains from 12,000 to 15,000 inhabitants. Of the population of the territory, about 30 per cent are Americans, 50 per cent British, and 20 per cent continental Europeans. The people live by agriculture, and work hard and fare hard. The church officers take one-tenth of each man's earnings, besides taxing every article of his property, and calling often for voluntary offerings which cannot safely be refused. The hierarchy also, owns all the gristmills, and takes one-tenth of each grist for toll. Bad whiskey is distilled from vegetables, and sells for six and eight dollars per gallon. A great sugar factory was erected at Salt Lake at an expense of nearly half a million of dollars, but the Utah beets were found to be so impregnated with saleratus that they would not make sugar, and only an inferior sort of molasses is produced from them. Of the character of the Mormon leaders the writer in the St. Louis Republican says:

"Lorenzo D. Young, Brigham's brother, is a finished scamp. He scarcely ever pays his hired man. To collect a debt from him is about impossible. Such transactions are of daily occurrence in all the Young families. In short, the initiated avoid trading with them. Daniel Wells, Brigham's second councillor and superintendent of the public works, very often keeps the wives and children of the operatives, (who get nothing for their labor but a bare subsistence,) waiting for their hard-earned, miserable daily pittance from nine o'clock in the morning until the tithing office closes, and then tells them they should have been there earlier. Heber C. Kimball, as Mr. Hyde in his excellent work on Mormonism has said, is the grossest, most ignorant, most tyrannical and most licentious of all the Mormon leaders. His discourses in the tabernacle are not fit for decently inclined men to hear, much less females. He is in an eternal war with his nineteen or twenty wives, and on Sundays publicly denounces them from the stand. Ezra T. Benson and Lorenzo Snow, are of the Lorenzo Young stamp, shrewd traders and consummate rogues. So finds vice and degradation among them, that young girls of twelve or thirteen years of age are frequently solicited for wives and marry. Brigham has the best conducted harem in the place."

ONE OF THE HORRORS OF WAR.—It appears by the correspondence of the London Times from Lucknow, that the capture of that place by the British troops was followed by the greatest excesses. Plunder and outrage became the rule, and it was found necessary to adopt the most stringent means to check the fury of the victors. The townsmen were seized and robbed, and if they resisted, violence was used. An attempt is made by the correspondent to throw much of the blame on the Sikhs, but is not concealed that the European troops were as eager for plunder, when the chance offered.

Indeed, it was found necessary to beat the drum and call the roll every hour; and to induce the townsmen who had fled to return, it was given out that the troops would be withdrawn as soon as the civil power was re-established.—Indeed the city seems to have been given up for a time to the unrestrained control of the soldiery, and we shall probably never hear the whole truth regarding the outrages that were perpetrated.

EMANCIPATION OF THE RUSSIAN SERFS.—A detailed programme has been issued at St. Petersburg regulating the labors of the committees of the nobility concerning the emancipation of the Serfs. In this programme three successive periods are indicated for the completion of this measure. In the first period, embracing six months, the principles of the emancipation are to be established. In the second these principles are to be applied to each property, and in the third a common code of laws is to be drawn up for the rural population. After that delay, the peasants are to obtain all the rights of other tax-paying classes. But they remain attached to the property until they have purchased their freedom.

ANOTHER HEAD OFF.—The official head of Robert W. Davis, U. S. Marshal for Michigan is now rolling in the ditch. His neck was brought to the block yesterday, at the government guillotine in Washington. John S. Bagg, of this city, has been appointed United States Marshal, in his place. Probably the State never had a more prompt or efficient officer than Mr. Davis has been—but he was a friend to Hon. C. E. Stuart. That tells the story.—Detroit Advertiser, 28th inst.

Loss of the British During the Past Year by Disease and the Sword.

From the London Times.

The Supplement of the Gazette is a truly affecting document. It gives the list of all who perished by murder, in action, or by disease in the rebellion which has raged for the last twelve months in India. Here we have, as far as can be ascertained, the victims of every age and condition, with their names, social designations, and manner of death. How officers, civil servants, missionaries, traders, with their wives and sisters, their little children, their English nurses their native servants, in more than one case Christian converts, fell under the blow of the assassin, is set down in cold official columns, which however, are more sadly eloquent than any animated description of the scenes they record. It is not until such a list meets the eye that we feel how complete was the massacre, how every man, woman and child of the European race was swept away, and how well the murderers might believe, in their temporary triumph, that the domination of the stranger was gone.—First comes the victims by the outbreak at Gwalior, Indore, and Mhow. At these places, 53 Europeans, of whom nearly half were women, and children, were butchered on the 14th and 15th of June, the 1st of July, and the 8th of November. We may then take the "list of people killed at Meerut on the night of the 10th of May, 1857." These amount to 31. They were the first victims of the mutiny, which, however, in a few hours spread to Delhi, where the massacre began on May 11.

First, we have a list of persons connected with the Delhi magazine who have disappeared, and are "reported to have been murdered." Among these are no less than 26 children—a fact for those who are disposed to deny the ruthlessness and atrocity of Sepoy revenge. Then follows nearly a column of names of persons who were certainly "murdered at Delhi." Among these we count 40 women and 54 children murdered; it may be reckoned, therefore, that upwards of 60 children were butchered at the single station of Delhi. The occupations of the victims are various. Missionaries of the most diverse creeds met a common fate; Anglican clergymen, Baptists, Wesleyans, and a Roman Catholic priest, are returned among the slain. Telegraph agents, private traders, persons connected with the College, all alike perished. Thirty-three persons are returned as having been murdered at Agra, and then we come to the crowning atrocity of Cawnpore. As the Gazette does not give any summary of the number slain, we are obliged to compute it as well as we can from the lists themselves. But the words "and children" following many of the female name only, indicate that a mother with her whole family was murdered, and we are left in ignorance of the precise number of the victims. It may be said, however, that in the first massacre of the 27th June, 55 grown up ladies are represented to have perished, besides "the whole of the married women and children of Her Majesty's 32d Foot," and "all the married women and children of the 1st Company, 5th Batalion Artillery."

As to the adult male part of the European community, we have, beside 22 persons of superior station, 60 men of Her Majesty's 84th Foot, 15 men of the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, 70 men (invalids) of Her Majesty's 32nd Foot, and 55 Bengal Artillerymen, four only of these last having escaped. In this first massacre it would thus appear that between 300 and 400 perished. On the night of the 16th of July, however, the great slaughter which horrified the civilized world was perpetrated under the command of the Nena Sahib. We count 186 residents at Cawnpore, among whom is the usual proportion of women and children, about 60 Futtyghur residents, "all supposed to have been murdered at Cawnpore," 56 other persons, seem with their "families," who were also in Cawnpore at the time, it is to be feared, have met the same fate, making in all upward of 300 more souls; and we read at the end:—"It must be remembered that this list does not include the soldiers of Her Majesty's 82nd and 84th Foot and Artillery, and their wives and children, many hundreds in number." Besides those there were 40 clerks, wives, and children, with four adults, whose names are given, and eleven children.—In short, we may count the number of victims at Cawnpore—men, women and children—at not far from eight hundred. It is of little use for us to continue these melancholy calculations.

After glancing over this return, containing 72 pages full of the names of those who have suffered at the hands of a treacherous and cruel enemy, one can hardly believe it was possible, that here at home, in the midst of newspapers and Parliamentary debates, a few persons should have the hardihood to stand up for the comparative innocence of the Sepoy, and with an irritating perversity to declare that the narratives of Asiatic malignity and cruelty are exaggerated, highly colored, got up for effect, purely mythical, and so on. If anything could add to the frenzy which is said to possess our people in the East, it would be the news that a clique at home had been denying what everybody on the spot knows to be true. Here we have, on unquestionable authority, the names of hundreds of women and hundreds of children massacred at a number of stations throughout the country with a ferocity which seems to have been innate in the perpetrators, since the deeds were committed almost contemporaneously, and did not spring from the example of one district acting on another. It is, forsooth, denied that women were violated or children hacked to pieces; the Sepoys, we are bound to believe, put everybody to death in the most gentle and merciful manner!

Assassination in New Orleans.

From the New Orleans Delta, of the 20th ult., we take the following:

A portion of the community—at least that small portion of it composed of the Know Nothings proper—was thrown into a great state of excitement last night on learning that that well-known individual, Abe Phillips, had been assassinated. He was killed at the corner of Canal and Basin streets, about half-past 10 o'clock.—Who were the parties who killed him was a mystery up to the time we write. (1 o'clock A. M.) From all the information we could gather, his assassination was predetermined.

All that is known about the matter, and that is vague, is, that he was seen crossing Canal street accompanied by two men; shots were heard, a man was seen running across the street pursued by others, shots were again heard, and two men were afterwards seen running down Canal street. When the people in the neighborhood attracted to the spot, arrived, they found Phillips expiring. He had been shot twice and afterwards stabbed.

Abe Phillips, since the inauguration of Know Nothingism into this city, has occupied a prominent position, we cannot, to be just, say an enviable one, in the community, and common rumor, whether correctly or otherwise, placed him as one of the principal leaders of the Thugs.

He was for some time on the secret police of Mayor Waterman, but subsequently, we believe, discharged by Mr. Waterman. He was afterwards appointed by Sheriff Parker to the responsible and lucrative position of Keeper of the Parish Prison, and dismissed from office by Mr. Parker for reasons, we presume satisfactory to that officer. Lately he has been quite prominent in the war of roses now being waged with such fierceness between the forces of Mayor Waterman and Recorder Stith, the two prominent Know Nothing candidates for the Mayoralty, and yesterday the report was freely circulated around town that he was the party who stabbed Lieutenant Montamat, of the Second District police, during the disgraceful emeute on Tuesday night last, at the Know Nothing meeting held over the Carrollton Railroad Depot.

We have no interest in the contending factions that are now aspiring to rule and govern this city, and assassination in every shape we loathe and abhor, but we have an interest in the city itself, and its good government, and if the city is to be purged of all the Thugs and assassins that now infest it, and have for a few years past made it the scorn and reproach of the Union, we would prefer, however much we are opposed to the higher law doctrine, that a Vigilance Committee should be at once formed to aid the law and order portion of the community, and give every obnoxious individual notice to quit in twenty-four hours. Matters are now getting to such a pass in this city, and, to use a vulgar phrase, "are getting no better fast," that no decent man can consider himself safe for a moment, except he transforms himself into a walking arsenal. Is there no remedy?

COL. FREMONT'S RECEPTION IN CALIFORNIA.—Col. Fremont was warmly received in California, especially by the squatters and miners at Mariposa. An account taken from a private letter says:—

"Deputations from the various townships met him at some distance from his residence, and the more enthusiastic of them took his horses from before the carriage, and with shouts of excitation drew him to his house. Bonfires were kindled on the mountain tops, quicksilver flasks filled with gunpowder were discharged, making the hills to echo with joy that their friend had come among them again. Judging from all accounts, the reception must have been most gratifying to Col. Fremont. The court which decided against him is composed of three judges. At the time of the decision, the chief justice was confined to his bed. This, however, did not deter him from writing and sending a protest against the decision. One of the remaining judges was the opponent of Mr. Fremont when he was elected United States Senator from California; the other is a squatter upon the estate. These facts being made known, the court was at once appealed to, asking a rehearing. This was granted, and in all probability ere now, the former decision has been reversed."

Tremendous Rains and High Water—Destruction of Bridges and other Property.

On Monday and Tuesday last, this region was visited by one of the heaviest rains within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. From Monday forenoon until Tuesday noon it rained almost incessantly, and it is estimated that from 5 to 6 inches depth of water must have fallen in that time. An almost unprecedented flood in all the streams in this vicinity has been the consequence, causing great damage to bridges, fences, crops and other property. Clear Creek, North and East of the town, rose to the greatest height ever known, and presented the appearance of a lake or wide river, covered with floating trees, timber, drift-wood, &c. It was estimated to be from half to three quarters of a mile wide in various places. The lands of Messrs Anderson, Evans, Barrys, Trimble, Linn, Swearingens, and others, lying along the creek, have suffered greatly. The dam at Worley's mill, above the bridge on the Chillicothe pike, sustained considerable damage. The bridge itself has escaped injury.

Rocky Fork, south and east of the town, was also as high as ever before known, and did great injury to the lands of J. M. Trimble, Jacob Bisher and others. We learn that the fine bridge across this stream, two miles east of Rainsboro, was carried away.

Fall Creek, we understand, was higher than ever before known, but we have heard no particulars of the damage done.

The railroad bridge over Dry Run, two miles west of the town, was carried away during Monday night, and no trains passed over the road on Tuesday or yesterday. The other bridges on the road this side of Blanchester, are reported safe, but we have no intelligence from below.—We learn by a gentleman from New Vienna yesterday morning, that no trains arrived on the Marietta road from west of that point on Tuesday. The trains were running eastward as far as Chillicothe.

LONGEVITY OF A CANARY BIRD.—A few days since a canary bird belonging to a lady in Brooklyn, N. Y., died at the advanced age of twenty-six years. For one year previous to its death he had been totally blind, and for several years had exhibited other evidences of advanced years, such as emaciation.

SENSIBLE!—Dr. Shannon says: "Prof. De Grath, Philadelphia—I am a regular Physician; graduate of the University of Pennsylvania; have practiced medicine a number of years, and have but little confidence in patent medicines; but from such high recommendations I have determined to try your "Electric Oil" for an old chronic rheumatism, for which all other remedies have failed. Please send me immediately whatever quantity you think necessary, and I will remit the money by return mail. Yours, truly,

D. P. SHANNON, M. D., Mt. Vernon.

Read This!—Capt. James M. Turner, being long connected with the Government, and as well known as the President of the United States, says:

NEW YORK, Nov. 1st, 1855.

G. De Grath & Co., Phila.—Gents: Actuated by a sense of gratitude, I, for the first time in my life, bear testimony to a patent medicine.

The immediate benefit derived from the use of your wonderful "Electric Oil" has induced me, although I feel no delicacy in making my case known for the sake of many more equally afflicted as I have always been regarding medicines.

A few days ago, on the act of hanging up a picture in my parlor, I fell backward, landing on top of a chair—so severely spraining my back as not only to cause great pain, but rendering it quite impossible to move without assistance. I immediately used one bottle of "Electric Oil," which I obtained from your agents, and one good application, entirely relieved me in, say, ten minutes. I shall, hereafter, rely on it in all my misfortunes.

I am, sirs, very gratefully yours,

JAMES M. TURNER.

The genuine "Electric Oil" is sold only at 89 South Eighth street, between Chestnut and Walnut, in Philadelphia.

For sale by Houck & Methorn, in Harrisonburg.

☞ For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. my29gt&wlm

☞ Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable "Hair Restorative," still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted. His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair, on the head of the aged, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when in the bloom with the advantages of youth. There can be no doubt, if we place credit in the innumerable testimonials which the Professor has in his possession, that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores, permanently, gray hair to its original color; and makes it assume a beautiful silky texture, which has been very desirable in all ages of the world. It frequently happens that old men marry beautiful and amiable young ladies, and not unfrequently crusty old maids make victims of handsome, good-natured, young gentlemen and by what process it has never been determined, why justly attributed to the use of this invaluable Hair Restorative.—Lasalle Journal. Sold by all good Druggists.

Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.

THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfections as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into the State. It is free from all noticeable get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the scouring cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We especially invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.—The Bucyrus (Ohio) Journal says that a man living near there lost his wife some years ago in Homer, New York, that they had a little girl which he gave to a friend, and left the country. He was gone ten years and returned, but could find no trace of his child. She had two marks by which he might know her—one too was gone, and she had a scar on her arm. The man gave her up as lost to him, and finally settled near Bucyrus and married. The rest we give from that paper:

"About six weeks ago he happened to pass by the room in his house occupied by a servant girl who had resided with him for nearly two years, at a time when she was about to retire, and the door being open, he saw her foot. He merely glanced at it, and happened to notice that the little toe of her right foot was missing. He thought nothing of it at the time, but after retiring the idea struck him that it might be the daughter he had searched for so long. At first he dismissed the thought as improbable, but it still forced itself upon him, until finally he requested his wife to go to the room and ascertain whether or not marks of a scald were upon her right arm.

"She went, and to his immense delight, reported that the mark was there. The poor man was so positive of her identity, that the girl was awakened, and in the middle of the night was questioned as to her origin. She could only tell that she did not know her parents, that her earliest recollections were that she had lived somewhere in the East, with a family named——(naming the family she had been left with by the woman originally intrusted with her,) and at their death she was taken charge of by the overseers of the poor, a place provided for her, and she had come to Bucyrus with a family, and had supported herself by doing housework since.—This tallied so nearly with the already ascertained facts in the case that the next day the father started east with her, and visiting the points she had named, ascertained, to his great joy, that she was in truth his daughter. She is an extremely beautiful girl, of great natural intelligence, and though totally uneducated, is still interesting. She is now at Granville, Ohio, receiving an education to fit her for the new station she has assumed in life.

A BULLET FORTY YEARS IN A MAN'S LUNG.—At the recent scientific convention at Balimore, Dr. Wurtz read an interesting paper giving the results of some chemical examinations connected with a bullet imbedded for more than forty years in a man's lung.
The individual whose experience had exhibited the effect of metallic lead imbedded in the human frame was an Irishman named Wm. Kelly, who had received a bullet wound at the siege of Badajoz, in the Peninsular war, retired upon a pension from the British Government, and died recently in the hospital at Kingston, Canada.—Upon dissection the bullet was found enclosed in a cyst, or bag, within the lung, and closely adhering to its walls in several places. The ball had lost one hundred grains of its original weight—three hundred and seventy grains—by corrosion. A portion of the amount of lead thus lost was recovered from the lungs and diaphragm.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully solicit the attention of the people of this community to a new Mastic

Roofing Compound,

Patented March 9d, 1857, by C. R. MILES, that is what it purports to be, viz:

FIRE AND WATER PROOF

ROOFING,

For proof of which he refers to a long and respectable list of certificates, a few of which are given below, and plenty of others to be seen at the office of the subscriber. Also would refer to men who have tested it in more than two hundred of the principal cities and towns in New York and Massachusetts. The patentee of the above Roofing is acquainted with the ingredients used, making, application, &c., of every Patent Roofing in the United States, and from and close application to the business—experimenting with from one to two hundred different compounds in a year—he has no hesitation in saying the broad ground that there is not even a possibility that any of them (save the above) will stand the

Some Testimony not bought, and no names inserted without the knowledge and cheerful consent of the parties:

Newburgh, April 10th, 1858.

St. John B. Sanborn, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—In reply to your request, asking my opinion with regard to the Composition Roofing patented by C. R. Miles, I have to state that I have examined the matter carefully, having watched its application in various places and in some very difficult ones, which it has been impossible to stop the leakage of with any other known composition. I have no hesitation in pronouncing, so far as its Water Proof qualities are concerned, essentially the thing, and next to its Fire Proof qualities, having examined the roofs of Stewart's Rotunda, Esq., I find the roof boards completely charred to ashes, and at the same time the Composition remains entirely unscathed by the fire, although constantly covered with falling brands and cinders. I consider it especially valuable both a Fire and Water Proof substance, and having had considerable experience with other Compositions for Roofing purposes, particularly with Warren's patent, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it the very best thing extant, both as a Fire and Water Proof Composition for Roofing purposes. H. F. ADAMS.

Having felt an interest in the subject of Mastic Roofing, and knowing that the preparations hitherto used have failed to stand the winters of this climate, we were induced in September last to apply to the proprietors of some of C. R. Miles' Mastic Roofing on a Tin roof adjoining our office, (said roof being much exposed to the action of the weather, and also the rain and snow from another roof,) we found at this date said roofing in the most perfect order, and believe the great question of how does it stand the "winters" is settled, and that C. R. Miles' Roofing must prevail over all other Mastic Roofing in use. SCHUYLER & PARSON,

G. SIMMONDS,
SOLE PROPRIETOR AND MANUFACTURER OF
PURE OHIO
Catawba Brandy.

THIS Brandy has been manufactured for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence, of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home, equal to those made by any other nation.
The Ohio Catawba Brandy, not only equals but excels the best imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists.
The wanted pure brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded as a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possess all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for

MEDICAL.

ONE DOLLAR
WILL BUY
ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY that acts as a Cathartic, cleanse, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the liver to expel the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.
DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums.
Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.
Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely ever failed to cure Liver Complaint in its worst forms.
INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is excited to action.
JAUNDICE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and it is proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, for any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.
CONSUMPTION can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.
SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects all acidity, and restores the system generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.
DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us as a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain! Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this the greatest remedy in the world.—State Fact.
We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.
There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as Dr. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we confer a favor on to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

CHERRY PECTORAL!
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness.

BERNHAM, Mass., Dec. 20th, 1855
Dr. J. C. AYER—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the consumptive symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the certain cure of these complaints. HEMEN KNIGHT, M. D.
A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you first presented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purposes ever put out. With a bad cold I should consider pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."
Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.
BENNINGTON, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.
BROTHER AYER:—I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we have found for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the worst diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

VOLUME XV. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1858. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

A Parisienne Confessing Her Debts.

"Madame de——was at the fancy ball given by M. Walewski, and all the newspapers rang with her praises, she was so gay, so careless, so full of repartee, and so much en train. So the world judges, ever taking the mask for the heart! She did not go to that ball for pleasure; heart! She did not go to that ball for pleasure; she went there on business. 'I have not my life upon a die.' She went there determined to single out the Emperor from among all the masks; to confide to him her desperate condition; to crave his aid! Judge from this resolve how high the fever raged which consumed her brain! She saw a mask; knew it was the Emperor; coquettishly enticed him in a corner and told him the story of her wretchedness, without omitting a single pang. The mask heard her story, and reading it as a form of masquerade, gaily returned her to the Arabian Tales, as even M. de Rothschild himself could not afford her relief. She almost forgot herself so far as to scream with glory.

"The voice of the masker showed her 'twas not the Emperor! It was then too late to see the Emperor; and she resolved to tell her husband. The first burst of the conjugal storm was of tropical violence. But as the husband loved his wife with ardent affection and pitied her for the long nights of anguish she lay tossing with fever while he slept in her bosom, he somewhat relented, and is now paying her debts. I dare say, when he has liquidated them all, he will recall her from the convent whither she has retired. It seems that in her love for show, she became sixteen thousand dollars in debt to the dry goods shops, the jewelers, and the mantuamakers; that she became alarmed at this sum, and embarked in stock gambling to save herself and embarked in stock gambling to save herself and followed loss, until she found herself owing $129,000."

RUSSIAN GALLANTRY.—A celebrated cantatrice, row "starring" it in Paris, lately received from a Muscovite prince a handsome brooch in diamonds, in acknowledgement of admiration; but not wishing to accept a gift, the motive of which might be misconstrued, she returned it with warm thanks. Next day she received a letter from the prince, approving highly of the decision, but the writing in this letter had a singularly glistening appearance, and it was afterwards found that the magnate, not to be outdone in generosity, had reduced the returned diamonds to fine powder, with which he had besprinkled the fwat ink, and had thus ensured the acceptance of his homage!

Proposals for Printing the Revised Statutes.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited for furnishing, in accordance with "An Act relating to the publication of the Revised Statutes," approved May 17th, 1858, ten thousand copies of the (one) volume of Revised Statutes, Compiled Laws, and other matter in said law directed to be published; the same to be delivered to the Superintendent of Public Property, at Madison, within four months of the time of making the contract. A competent person will be appointed to attend, personally, to the printing of said Statutes, read the proof, append the marginal notes, arrange the chapters, prepare the Index. He will be empowered to supervise the work throughout, and reject any portion not done in accordance with the terms of the contract. All acts of a general nature, passed at the session of 1859, are required to be published in the volume, together with such other matter as is published with the present volume of Revised Statutes.

The volume is proposed to be a "large octavo, the text on a single small pica type, the notes in minion, and printed on a good quality of book paper, bound in good substantial law-book style, and to contain about the same number of pages, and the same quality of material and workmanship as the Revised Statutes of Maine, published in '57, which is adopted and placed in the Executive office as a standard.

The copyright of the said Statutes, against individuals, is reserved to the contractor, the retail price of the book to be not more than $4.00. The contractor to give bonds to the amount of $30,000, with two sureties who shall be residents of this State, and each; ability to that amount, for the performance of the contract.

Preference will be given to a bid from this State, all other things being equal.

Proposals must be made for furnishing the work at a certain sum per volume of 1,000 pages, and a certain amount for each additional hundred pages.

Proposals will state the time within which the books will be delivered, and the shortest time and the lowest price will be considered in declaring the award.

Proposals will be received until 3 P. M. of Tuesday, June 15th, 1858, at which time they will be opened, and the award made. They should be sealed and marked, "Proposals for printing the Revised Statutes," and inclosed in an envelope addressed to the "Executive Office, Madison, Wis."

It is not probable that the payment can be made for the work before the middle of February in 1859.

The law authorizing the publication is published herewith.

Madison, May 21st, 1858.

ALEX. W. RANDALL, Governor,
SAML. D. HASTINGS, Sec'y of State.
GABRIEL BOUCK, Att'y General.

CHAPTER CXXXIV.

AN ACT relating to the publication of the Revised Statutes.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The printing of the Revised Statutes shall be done under the general supervision of one of the commissioners appointed to revise the laws, "or some competent person to be selected by the Governor, who shall be denominated, Superintendent of Printing of the Revised Statutes." and he shall receive such compensation as the Governor may deem just and proper; Provided, that the per diem shall not be more than six dollars per day. The said Superintendent shall attend personally to the printing and binding of said Statutes, shall read the proof, append the marginal notes, on all the pages, indicating the subject matter of each section respectively, as are so directed, arrange the chapters, and prepare a proper index for the same; the chapters and sections of the work, as it progresses, with the succession or standard volume hereinafter provided for, and shall have full power, with the consent of the Governor, to stop the work at any time, if in his opinion it is not being done in accordance with the contract, and not allow it to proceed until he is satisfied that the execution of the work is in every respect equal to the standard and in such of its importance demands. All acts of a general nature, passed at the present session of the Legislature shall be included in said volume of the Revised Statutes, and it shall be the duty of the said Superintendent, not less hereby authorized to compile and properly arrange said acts for publication therein. And the Secretary of State, on the completion of the publication of the Revised Statutes, is hereby authorized to draw a warrant on the State Treasury for the amount of compensation of the said Superintendent, and there is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury, a sum sufficient to meet the expenses, as provided in this section.

SEC. 2. The Revised Statutes shall be published in one volume, large octavo, the text on new small pica type, the notes in minion, and printed on good quality of book paper, bound in good substantial law book style; and shall be equal in quality and of material and workmanship to a specimen volume which shall be selected by the Governor, and placed in the Executive Office as a standard, and by which the work shall be executed; and said volume of Statutes shall contain such matter besides the general and permanent laws of the State, and such marginal notes and index, as shall be prescribed by law. And it shall be the duty of the person having the contract for furnishing the said Statutes, to cause to be printed on the cover under the title, and on the back of each volume, the words State Property.

SEC. 3. The copyright of the Revised Statutes is hereby secured to such person or persons as shall become the contractor or contractors to furnish the same; Provided, such person or persons shall, within twenty days after he or they shall be notified of the acceptance of his or their proposition for furnishing said Statutes, execute to the Governor of the State a bond, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars with two or more sureties, each of whom shall be a resident of this State, and shall each justify to the amount of the bond to be given, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the work, in accordance with the standard on deposit in the Executive Office, and for the delivery of the said volumes, as hereinbefore provided. Provided further, that the retail price shall not exceed four dollars per volume. Provided further, that such copy right shall only hold good as against individuals.

SEC. 4. The Governor, Attorney General and State Treasurer are hereby required, immediately after the passage of this act, to advertise, in at least six newspapers in this State, giving not less than ten days notice, for sealed proposals for delivering to the Superintendent of Public Property, ten thousand copies of the said Revised Statutes in style as provided for in the second section of this act, said notice to state the time when the Governor, Attorney General and State Treasurer, shall proceed to open such proposals, and award the work to the person or persons whose proposition shall be by them considered the lowest and best; and the Governor shall enter into a contract with such person or persons for performing the work in accordance with the terms proposed, and in accordance with this act; Provided, that in the preference shall be given to a bid made by a person or persons proposing to do the work in this State, the terms and conditions being equal.

SEC. 5. The said revised statutes shall be delivered at the seat of government of this State, within four months after the contract is entered into, and proposals for the printing said statutes shall guarantee the time within which the work is to be completed, and the Governor, the Attorney General and State Treasurer, shall consider shortest time, as well as the lowest price in awarding the contract; and the Governor of this State is hereby authorized to receive and accept said statutes so delivered, and to deliver to said contractor a receipt for the same, and to cancel his bond.

SEC. 6 Upon the completion and delivery of the entire ten thousand copies as before provided, upon the presentation of the receipt of the Superintendent of Public Property, that they are duly delivered, and approved by the Governor, Attorney General and State Treasurer, shall audit the entire account for furnishing the statutes in accordance with the contract price, and draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer therefor.

SEC 7. The Secretary of State is hereby authorized and directed, to furnish to the contractor for furnishing and publishing the statutes, the copy for the same, and carefully as it can be prepared from day to day, as the same is deposited in his office.

SEC 8. The Constitution of the United States, and of the States of Wisconsin, the Declaration of Independence, and such United States Laws and Ordinances as are in the present Statutes, shall be published with the Revised Statutes.

SEC 9. There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay all warrants drawn in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this act.

SEC. 10. The bid herein before mentioned, shall be so much per volume, of one thousand pages, and so much for each additional hundred pages.

SEC. 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, and the State Printer is hereby required to publish it immediately after its passage.

Approved May 17th, 1858. my26g37d&cd1e19

FARM FOR SALE.

SITUATED one half hour's ride from town, on a good plank Road. The farm contains eighty acres sixty-five being improved. Of this, thirty-five acres is meadow land, and the balance sowed with grain. The whole farm is divided in lots from acres each, and well fenced. The farm house is new, having been built by the present owner to occupy himself. The property also contains two new and large barns, with outhouses complete. Also, a large orchard with a great variety of choice fruit. The reason for selling is, having changed business, is desirous to sell, and will offer the property low, and on good terms, or would exchange for city property.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fitful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of them but a part of your usual meals. A nourishment it contains, as the sero-mucous fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes weak and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to.

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases, the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress upon your mind that one bottle and a half is worth more of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
